GUEST SPEAKER: Shannan Martin

Shannan Martin is a writer who found her voice in the country and her story in the city. She and her jail chaplain husband, Cory, have four funny children who came to them across oceans and rivers. Having sold their dream farmhouse, they now live entrenched in community on the wrong side of the tracks.

Shannan's first published book, Falling Free—Rescued From the Life I Always Wanted, was just released in September 2016. We are thrilled to have Shannan back as our Oasis speaker.

Signup through your local church & don't forget to invite a friend.
